

Question 1. Write a prayer to God thanking him for all the opportunities your parents have given to you. [5]

Question 2. Complete the following lines of the school song: [4]

So academicians in work and in play,

You'll swiftly & happily pass each glad day of the years bright & brief that will end all too soon

In St. Joseph's the pearl of the vale of the Doon.

Question 3. Answer the following questions: [5 × 3 = 15]

- creating men & women with same respect & accepting their differences while
 (a) What does gender equality mean? When one is ready to do all types of work & give respect & recognition to all
 (b) What is dignity of labour? People engaged in diff. types of work
 (c) Who is a person who has religious tolerance?
 (d) What is patriotism?
 (e) What does national integration teaches us?

Question 4. How will you respond in the following situations: [6 × 3 = 18]

- (a) If you see an elderly person throwing wastes on the street.
 (b) Your teacher finds out that you have copied the project work from your friend.
 (c) All your friends have a personal phone but not you.
 (d) If you see a senior student bullying one of your classmates in the washroom.
 (e) Your benchmate uses abusive language frequently.
 (f) A student of another section says something bad about your parents.

Question 5. Fill in the blanks: [8]

- (a) The person with the greatest influence on one's life is a mother.
 (b) Hard work and commitment are the two elements to maintain dignity of labour.
 (c) Patriotism instills a sense of belonging and complete loyalty for our motherland.
 (d) National integration helps in the growth of cooperation and coordination among the people.
 (e) We celebrate women's day every year to give credit to women for their achievements.
 (f) Tolerance and acceptance is the religion of humanity.

- (g) One who feels the same for other religions as well.
 (d) A deep & sincere feeling of pride in our country, a sense of belonging and an unshaken loyalty to our motherland
 (e) A feeling of oneness & unity, of harmony & love, of cooperation & co-ordination among the Indians